

Please keep the No Call List as is. I don't need to keep running to the phone only to have no one speaking on the other end. They call my number and then put it on hold while they dial a half dozen other numbers and I get an open line with no voice. I don't need it. I'm too old for running for nothing.

Thanks for your help.